

Pike on line is the only Internet Service in our area. The big phone companies do not provide internet service to the area and when contacted they had no idea when it would be available. This is totally wrong on the side of the phone companies